

Fatherhood TRAINING SERIES

Center for the Prevention of Child Maltreatment, through support from SD Department of Health presents a limited training series on Fatherhood. Online, one-hour training sessions will cover topics including impact of involved fathers, co-parenting techniques and strategies, father involvement in maternal and infant health, family resilience, diversity of fatherhood experiences across cultures, and impact of policies on father engagement.

Wednesdays, June 12-July 17 | 12:00pm to 1:00pm CT | SDCPCM.com/News/Fatherhood-Series

June 12 | Introduction to Fatherhood & Family Dynamics | J. Michael Hall, Strong Fathers Strong Families

June 19 | Co-Parenting | Dr. Brad Sachs, The Father Center

June 26 | Parental Inclusion: Benefits to Maternal & Infant Health | Joel Austin, Daddy University

July 3 | Fatherhood and Family Resilience | D. L. Pos Ryant, Apprentice of Peace Youth Organization

July 10 | Cultural Competency and Diversity in Fatherhood | Jillian Baker, The Center for Parent and Teen Communication

July 17 | Policy and Structural Factors for Support Fathers | Dan Wuori, Early Childhood Policy Solutions

