CPCM & PARTNER REPORTS & UPDATES

Center for the Prevention of Child Maltreatment (CPCM): Carrie Sanderson provided the CPCM report to the committee. The grant cycle end is approaching for multiple CPCM projects. The center will be focusing on grant writing and reaching out to partners for support during the process. CPCM will be holding the Child Abuse Prevention Breakfast “Ray of Hope” on Tuesday, April 4, 2023, 7:30-9:00 am, at the Holiday Inn City Centre in Sioux Falls. Terri Melitz will be providing an overview of the Watertown Resilient Communities efforts during the event. More information will be provided next week through CPCM communications. The center is in the process of rolling out a new website that will highlight the work CPCM is producing and be more user friendly for partners and the public to view resources. Funding for the online training library is being researched to ensure there is sustainability in providing the valuable content across the state. The center is in the process of recruiting a Program Assistant II. The deadline to apply is February 21, 2023. The Advisory Board will be electing new members and completing a robust review of the CPCM strategic plan during the April 13, 2023 meeting.

Children's Home Society of South Dakota (CHS): Tifanie Petro provided the CHS report to the committee. Since 2018, 876 ACEs trainings have been conducted for 21,247 adults and 573 youths. There have been 209 Enough Abuse trainings conducted for 3,984 adults and 96 youths since 2019. CHS has partnered with the DOE and CAASt program to provide vicarious trauma training for educators. The West River MDT conference was held in Rapid City on February 9, 2023. Around 175 people attended the conference which featured two national speakers on dual status youth topics and three panels with local experts.

Court Improvement Program (CIP) Committee: Sara Kelly provided the CIP report to the committee. The Child Welfare Legal Workshop will be held on March 28, 2023 in Vermillion, SD. The CIP committee continues to provide monthly Lunch & Learn sessions to court professionals regarding the abuse and neglect process. In partnership with DSS, court hearing observations are being provided throughout different state judicial circuits, starting with Codington County. There are currently twelve families in the Momentum Court project. Two children have been reunified with family members through the program. During the 2022 legislative session, the South Dakota CASA Commission received one million dollars in general funds to expand the CASA program throughout the state. An application for national CASA has been submitted for the 5th and 6th circuits. Please contact Sara Kelly to recommend topics or speakers for future judicial conferences.

South Dakota Division of Criminal Investigation (SD DCI): Cameron Corey provided the SD DCI report to the committee. An update on the Attorney Generals Office and DCI leadership positions was provided to the committee. Two additional Internet Crimes Against Children (ICAC) investigators have been hired due to the task force being inundated with cyber tips. Allison Morrisette is the new Missing and Murdered Indigenous People (MMIP) Coordinator. A listening session will be held in February at the Oglala Sioux Tribe to gather community feedback. The DCI is currently trying to gauge the prevalence of human trafficking in South Dakota due to the disconnect of court cases versus what agencies across the state are seeing. The department has partnered with the Children’s Home Society to co-locate Trista Dupres as a DCI agent within the Child Advocacy Center in Rapid City. West River DCI has been focusing on endangered children and fake fentanyl. When an agent suspects children are in the home with narcotics, a child maltreatment investigator is included in the case. A local doctor has partnered with the group to provide medical evaluations for drug endangered children.

South Dakota Department of Education (SD DOE): Rebecca Cain provided the SD DOE report to the committee. New schools will be joining the 2023/2024 cohort of the Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports program. Retraining will be provided to schools who are already in the program through the Elementary and Secondary School Emergency Relief (ARP ESSER) funding. The DOE has partnered with the University of Minnesota to offer the Check & Connect guidance training to assist educators in ensuring students successfully graduate. Free mental health posters are available for schools to hang in bathroom stalls or locker rooms through the Mental Health Poster Campaign. Project Aware is in the final year of the grant and sustainable funding for the program is being researched.

South Dakota Department of Health (SD DOH): Beth Dokken provided the SD DOH report to the committee. The Bright Start Program was awarded $2.5 million during the 2022 legislative session to expand services statewide. The program nurses will be hired and trained by April 2023. The DOH is partnering with Medicaid and the Bright Start Program for the Pregnancy Health Homes budget request supported by Governor Kristi Noem in the 2023 legislative session. The next Newborn Screening Advisory Board Committee will be held in April 2023. The committee will be discussing newborn hearing screenings. The multiagency Action Workgroup consisting of the DOH, DOE, DSS, South Dakota Department of Veterans Affairs (SDDVA), South Dakota Department of Agriculture (SDDA), and the Department of Tribal Relations (DTR) continues to review data and identify counties that have reached or exceeded their 10-year average in suicide rates. The suicide rates for 2022 were lower than 2021. Opioid rates in South Dakota remained consistent from 2020 to 2021.

South Dakota Department of Social Services (SD DSS): Pamela Bennett provided the SD DSS report to the committee. In the first six months of FY 23, the central intake hotline has received 8,262 calls of which 7,539 were actual reports of child abuse and neglect. In the child welfare system, 470 children entered the system, 528 children exited the system, and 162 finalized adoptions were completed. The department is focusing its resources to comply with the passed ballot initiative for Medicaid expansion. DSS is offering Positive Indian Parenting through the Common Sense Parenting Program. The foster and adoptive parent recruitment campaign "Stronger Families Together" is in year two and continues to make progress in the goal of recruiting 1,200 new families over four years (300/year). There were over 300 families recruited and a 25% increase of Native American foster homes in the first year of the campaign. A vendor that has significant involvement in the tribal communities has been selected for the Family First Plan. The program will provide evidence-based programs to support children that are determined to be at risk for entering foster care.

TRIBAL WORKGROUP

Tracey McMahon and Teresa Nieto presented the Tribal Workgroup update to the committee. Tracey McMahon will be serving as the workgroup coordinator. The group had previously started a point of contact list for programs within the nine reservations for information sharing. There will be a high importance on visiting the tribal communities and scheduling site visits. In 2022, the group applied for funding to create a tribal liaison position at CPCM. The funding was not awarded to CPCM and other funding opportunities are being reviewed to create the position within the next year.

2023 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

2023 Public Policy Position Statements: The committee was provided the following updated 2023 Public Policy Position Statements:

All policy issues point to the goal of ending child maltreatment in South Dakota. We understand that what is predictable is preventable. We need to strengthen what we know about, how we respond to, and how we prevent child maltreatment in our state. The following initiatives align with the CPCM strategic plan and the CDC strategies for preventing ACEs.

1. Preventing Childhood Maltreatment in All Forms
  - a. Strengthen sexual abuse prevention programs and laws.
  - b. Create holistic and culturally appropriate responses and strengthen laws and policies to address instances of abuse, neglect, and household disfunction.
  - c. Strengthen and support resources, laws, and initiatives to address the co-occurrence of child physical abuse and domestic abuse.
  - d. Support and strengthen laws focusing on the best interest of the child.
2. Supporting Risk & Protective Factors for Building Resilience in Children & Families
  - a. Increase access services to families such as home visiting, early childhood education, and parent education.
  - b. Promote access to mental health services to parents and all those affected by childhood trauma.
  - c. Support efforts to increase safe, affordable childcare and early childhood education.
  - d. Increase funding for evidence-based family support services and other necessary resources so they can be established in all communities and made available to all families.
  - e. Promote the notion of a shared societal responsibility for investing in the healthy development of children and providing all families with the support and resources they need and deserve.

- f. Support a task force on coordinating victim services.
  - g. Support a multi-agency coordination team for children’s mental health services.
3. Reporting Child Maltreatment
- a. Increase training for mandatory reporters in South Dakota.
  - b. Increase public awareness for permissive reporting of child maltreatment.
  - c. Increase the list of professions included as mandatory reporters in SDCL.
  - d. Increase and support bystander awareness training.
4. Data
- a. Support data collection, analysis, and sharing to create opportunity within the community and the state for increasing protective and decreasing risk factors for children.
